CEREMONY OF INSTALLATION

*The Chairman shall request
Dr. John Bell to present
the President Designate to the assembled gathering.*

*The Vice-Chairman of the Board,
Mr. John Ostler, shall say:*

John Morton Porter: You are now formally to assume the function and office of President of this College to which you have been duly appointed. In the name of the Board of Governors of Sheridan College I charge you to keep and preserve, well and faithfully, the statutes, rights and liberties of the College and to promote its well-being and that of its members, both faculty and students, so far as in you lies.

*The President Designate
shall say:*

I, John Morton Porter, promise to keep and preserve the statutes, rights and liberties of the College, and, with the help of others, to foster and develop the College in the highest tradition of educational excellence, so that it satisfies the needs of the broad community which it serves.

The Chairman shall say:

By Resolution of the Board of Governors, I do hereby install you, John Morton Porter, as first President of Sheridan College of Applied Arts and Technology, with all the rights, privileges and authorities of that office. Even as you are invested with the robes of your office, may you be invested with the strength and power to discharge the duties of the same, and lead Sheridan College to the greatness it deserves.

The President will be invested with his robes of office by the Registrar of Sheridan College.
